CHRISTMAS APPEAL St Marys Church Uniformed Groups have chosen to make their shoeboxes up for the Homeless people of Nottinghamshire.

POEM – SCARS IN THE LANDSCAPE

Such deep scars they left
those trenches dug
by men long gone.
Tin hats, stout boots,
sodden uniforms;
the rain endless, soaking everyone.
I see their faces; weather bitten,
determination, deep courage displayed
showing through suffering and pain.
So young were some, barely out of school,
no life experience to draw on,
as enemy barrage guns were aimed at them.
Oh, the tears that women wept;
it was not in vain the sorrow
as lives were maimed by loss.
Each family counting; father, brother, son
all lost, all dead, all gone.
They live again in hearts that loved them.
They gave their all, they fought, they strived.
We in our time will honour them.
